January 2, 2017: John, here are the 15 comments on Jazz for Peace video from Mike Armando fans and friends so far. Thanks - Mike Armando, NYC

- 1) Mike Armando ~ I thought it was excellent.
- 2) Carol Armando ~ I think Jazz for Peace is a great idea. I think the video was well put together and educational. Jazz is an international music and is the perfect music to bring peace to the world though jazz exposure young and old.
- 3) Anita Lopicalo ~ I thought Jazz for Peace video presentation was great. The only thing I noticed was at the very beginning it had a map with New York City on the west coast but corrected itself in a latter frame. Other than that it was a great presentation and a great idea to use Jazz for Peace. Mike Armando and his collaborators have been making great music for many years. His style tends to be mellow yet he varies styles from funk to blues and in between. Consistently great!!
- 4) Gali Amarmilio ~ I love this video!! "Jazz for Peace" Your music is always an inspiration for me... Excellent video / music!!!
- 5) Andrew Golba ~ I have watched the videos. This seems like a worthy situation. Jazz For Peace seems like a good organization with a great mission. Seems like a good thing to be part of. Thank You
- 6) Artt Frank ~ I just watched the video, Jazz For Peace, and really think it is a great idea and feel that it will help people everywhere to get an idea that Jazz music not only makes for good listening and education, but to also promote peace and goodwill throughout the world. Thanks for posting the video. - Artt

Frank, Hall Of Fame inductee and longtime drummer with jazz trumpet icon, Chet Baker.

7) Michael Alexander ~ Seems like a very good idea. Spreading great music and good vibes around the world..

8) Joe Izzo ~ A great cause. The world needs more of this.

9) Warren Wygand ~ I think Jazz for Peace is a great idea. Jazz is a very creative music. Jazz for peace is introducing jazz to people who may have never heard of this music. Jazz for Peace is doing the world a great loving service. Thanks a lot.

10) Susan Wade ~ I really enjoyed the video. I was really happy to see an organization spreading peace though music and that is jazz. I think it is a very good idea. Mike Armando would be a great choice to perform for Jazz for Peace. Wow. Great idea.

11) Patrick DeBernardi ~ A good idea long overdue. Jazz for Peace video was put together very well. A lot of information. I think it will help people in the USA and the world. I hope to see Mike Armando with his group perform and hope he does get this grant. He would be the ideal person to perform for Jazz for Peace and that is peace though jazz. Thank you for your video a great idea.

12) Marlina Griffin ~ What a great way, Jazz for Peace. You are doing an important work. Good luck and success in your endeavors.

13) Michael Cochrane ~ Jazz for peace is a great idea. I support bringing jazz to a world stage.

14) Boris Kurganov ~ Jazz for Peace is a great Idea

15) Nancy Monroe ~ Music certainly is a way to bring people together in peace. One way to create a world community is through jazz.

16) Laurie Bertolini Simpson ~ Jazz for Peace is a great idea, and Mike Armando is the perfect ambassador of jazz music. Mike's talent, his original compositions, brilliant performance, along with his ensemble playing consistently demonstrate his depth of sensitivity to the art. Music is an international language and the energy of jazz is predisposed to reach across social strata. Mike's music contains the magnetic pull to bring all people together. I believe there is no better genre than jazz for peace and, no better player than Mike Armando's tightly-woven and virtuoso musicianship.

Dec. 20, 2016: From the Board Members of an outstanding organization in Jacksonville, Fla.

Jerry Fraiser: I watched both videos and I think that this organization is doing great things and I know that they will be able to help us in our effort.

James Baggs: I liked how they went around the world to help people through music and that is what C.B.Cane is trying to do.

Monya Williams: The concept of Jazz For Peace and their grant work embodies everything that help is supposed to be about. The videos were very informative.

Greg Martin: I liked the music and the founder really explained the work that they do in detail. I think that this organization can really help Cane with this work.

Carrie Fraiser: We have been looking for a grant source for a long time and this is the answer to our prayers. The process that he explained seems simple enough and it will help the effort and the goal CB is trying to reach.

Marva Daniels: I don't understand a lot of this technology, but I understood that this is a good idea and a way to help people.

C.B.Cane: I viewed these videos several times and each time my take away was different. I learned the importance of togetherness and I have a new perspective when it comes to ministering to others needs. The videos were so good, I really liked them
