Making your event more prestigious and profitable.

September 25, 2002

Rick DellaRatta and Jazz For Peace performed at the United Nations Headquarters in New York City. He led a band consisting of Middle Eastern, both Arab and Israeli, European, Asian, and American jazz musicians in concert for an international audience. Jazz for Peace continues to perform concerts to raise money for non-profit organizations. 2018 marks the 16th anniversary of this historic event!

Making your event more prestigious and profitable.

“By bringing Israeli, Palestinian and American Jazz musicians together Rick DellaRatta and Jazz for Peace have used the transcendent quality of music to promote a message of peace and unity. Now, over 500 concerts later, Jazz for Peace continues its mission of challenging humanity to realize that the forces that unite us are far stronger than the forces that divide us. I want to congratulate Rick and Jazz for Peace on everything they have accomplished to this point, and all the good they are sure to bring about as they continue this concert series....”

~ United States President Barack Obama

“International Jazz Day could not happen without partners like Jazz for Peace....using concerts, community outreach and education programs to raise support and awareness for local and international charities...to promote charitable and service-based activities that help make a positive difference in the world...to unify and empower the vulnerable in our society. We are indebted to you for your steadfast support, and look forward to working with you...” ~ Herbie Hancock

I would like to say many thanks to the Jazz for Peace Organization for the opportunity I am given to take part to their Grant Program. Here is my comment: “Peace is unquestionably a basic, essential and legitimate value affecting positively mankind, the world, likewise the whole Universe. Being in peace with ourselves, the others and the nature is a state of mind and a permanent quest... By connecting likeminded people and organizations around the world with the necessary resources by means of Jazz, the Jazz for Peace organization is somewhat a Glimmer of Hope fighting the root causes of poverty, hunger, illiteracy, injustice, wars... For this reason, this great organization deserves my support and total commitment.” ~ Aubin Oscar Zoetyande - Ministry of Youth, Professional Training and Employment of Burkina Faso
