"Thank you so much for the important work you're doing, not just on behalf of Julian Assange, but also on behalf of transparency, accountability, and openness in government. This is exactly what the Founding Fathers would have wanted from us. You would make them proud." ~ John Kiriakou - American Author, Journalist, Former Intelligence Officer and CIA Whistleblower.

Today's Elder Example: Former Malaysian Prime Minister Tun Dr. Mahathir Mohamad discusses his decades-long quest to criminalize war, why world leaders are so reluctant to renounce the war machine, and the secret to his 100-year longevity.*

Message from one of our ELDERS "...steadfast and creative...Jazz for Peace unites the world of the arts with the arenas for justice. May other musical and artistic groups emulate your example and your consistency" ~ Ralph Nader (for additional clarification see "Letter to My Father" inside this video.)

Here is why our Elders are important in the words of our Founder:

- A. When I was a child growing up I learned a lot from my parents and grandparents. One of the most important things I learned personally was that Music could bring people together from all walks of life and cut through every possible division to not only unite us in a positive way, but also raise our level of human consciousness to completely transcend many of the problems that we were facing at a lower human consciousness level.
- B. When my grandparents died I was very sad that none of these moments were captured during the vibrancy of their lives. I was sad for the permanently lost lessons that could have been learned by not only the people who never even knew my grandparents but also the reminder of their examples by our current family and the opportunity of their message to be bestowed on future generations.
- C. When my parents died this same sadness was repeated all over again.
- D. This Elder Series gives our foundation a chance to capture the magic in others that we were not able to capture in these two instances and resolve this Lost

Below are Frequently Asked Questions:

Dear Outstanding Curators,

Thanks for your questions and here are the answers:

Question #1: Congratulations to The Jazz for Peace Podcast now listed at #8! As a Curator, I would simply gather my favorite elder guests for this Special Series. Is that correct?

ANSWER: Yes, that would be the idea. Those specific elders would all be listed as a group that was specifically hand selected by you to share their insights with the world along with providing a very special Memento for their family along with a cherished family heirloom to be shared and enjoyed by future generations.

What would the series be about? What is the topic?

ANSWER: it is a very special series where the general public has an opportunity to learn from a finite group of elders whose timeless experiences, lessons and messages to current and future generations offers listeners a unique opportunity to learn from their lives and experiences. Because each elder is unique, the topic for each episode would also be reflective of their special offering with regards to the legacy that they want to leave for their current family to remember of them by for the public to remember them by and know about them and for future generations to benefit from their episode for years to come.

How old should they be?

ANSWER: At this point we would consider the answer to be something for each curator to decide for themselves. But I would be happy to go over with you any specific guest that you feel is either too young or too old in order to help you with your decision. However we would ultimately prefer the final decision to be made by the curator since it is they that will be given all of the credit for the selection of that guest.

This sounds very cool.... So how does it work? Are you looking for me to be on a panel...

ANSWER: It's really easy. You tell us who you've chosen and we add them to our exclusive series listing your name as the curator for each Elder!

Tell me as much as you can about your goals for this amazing initiative.

ANSWER: The reason we are undertaking this unique series is because I believe that there is a possibility that it could be THIS successful ~

And here's why in the words of our Founder and Podcast Series Host:

A. When I was a child growing up I interviewed my grandparents and they absolutely loved it.

B. I also knew when I was interviewing them that my family would love it - from cousins to siblings to extended family etc. etc..

C. Lastly, I knew when I was interviewing them that future generations would also not only love it, but also benefit greatly from this authentic interview that would also feature their love of the Arts and music as well! The episode I made with my grandparents had the same extraordinary passion that you see in the actual words of the 850 testimonials located at the link that I just shared with you above. Except for only one problem: We had no camera, no microphone, no computer and no Top 10 Rated, Prestigious and Award Winning Podcast. Now We Do.

How do payments work?

Our Foundation will pay you what YOU think the episode is worth. Our studies show that this rate could easily be between $300 and $500 per episode for those helping with interviews, storytelling, or outreach. And even more as the series gains traction, popularity, prestige, and notoriety.

Here are a few things that our foundation views as positives:

1. Someone who is truly passionate about sharing their experiences in order to make a difference for future generations - A HUGE Positive!
2. Someone whose family is also interested in not only the opportunity for this episode to be seen by the general public around the world but also as a keepsake for to cherish for the rest of their loved ones lifetime. - A HUGE Positive!
3. Someone whose family is also interested in this episode as a Memento and Heirloom to be cherished and enjoyed by future generations. - A HUGE Positive!

Of course all three of these qualities would be great but any one quality that is truly powerful and passionate amongst either the actual Elder that has been chosen and/or the loved one(s) that surround him could also overtake the absence of the other two qualities.

How are they received?

Each elder or family member representing that elder will be asked to review both a finished version of the edited episode along with a tentative title and a tentative description. They will be allowed to request changes or edits to all three if needed and of course if there are no edits needed they are also entitled to simply say "approved" and ask for scheduling. Either way, as soon as we get the green light from them to schedule the episode we will at that same time send you your fee as well. Click HERE for add'l clarification.
