

Dear Friend, family, supporter, or team member,

2019 marks the 17th anniversary of the Jazz for Peace Concert at the United Nations which is now a part of history. Since then Jazz for Peace has awarded over 850 Grants earning its place as "one of the most significant cultural events of our time". As part of this special Grant funding process all of your friends, family, colleagues and supporters will be awarded special VIP perks and amenities at our Jazz for Peace™ event for [REDACTED] to be held on "Peace Day", September 21, 2019 at a convenient & appropriate venue in Bellingham, Washington as detailed in the "Jazz for Peace VIP Guest of Honor Fast Facts!" listed below:

There are 3 amazing reasons to attend this event!

1. To support this amazing cause!
2. To receive all the amazing VIP Perks and Amenities located at this link: <https://jazzforpeace.wordpress.com/step-2/> scroll to "VIP Guest of Honor Fast Facts!"
3. To experience the unprecedented achievements and musical performance by Jazz for Peace™ as detailed in each of the informative Links below.

And all you need to do to confirm YOUR VIP Guest of Honor Status is review the information below and let me know your comment!

In honor of this historic celebration we are applying for a Grant to take our project to the next level and would like you to take a quick minute to click on the VIP link above, review the information about Jazz for Peace below, and let us know your comment or feedback!

Here is my comment: "I want to commend Jazz for Peace™ for the vitally important work you are doing utilizing world-class music to help fund cause-related organizations, alleviate global issues of poverty, hunger, injustice and environmental sustainability. I look forward to working together to create a world of peace & compassion – a world that works for all!" For more clarification see actual comments from VIP's of previous Grants HERE.

Please review the information above and below and let me know yours.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

September 25, 2002

Rick DellaRatta and Jazz For Peace performed at the United Nations Headquarters in New York City. He led a band consisting of Middle Eastern, both Arab and Israeli, European, Asian, and American jazz musicians in concert for an international audience. Jazz for Peace continues to perform concerts to raise money for non-profit organizations. 2019 marks the 17th anniversary of this historic event!

See it to believe it by clicking on the links below.

1. Jazz for Peace™ Around the World - Click HERE
2. At Washington DC Lincoln Memorial - Click HERE
3. VIP Meet and Greet Ceremony in Brazil - Click HERE
4. See the positive impact from just one event , check out our Empowerment Tree , or WATCH our latest interview!