

Jazz for Peace is a philanthropic World Class Arts & Cultural Organization that cares about what people really want - a future of HOPE, PROSPERITYAND a chance to FINALLY take funding for World Peace from 0% where it is now all the way to 1% during the current year long celebration of the 25th anniversary of JAZZforPEACE that started on the morning of 9/11 and features the following unprecedented achievements below:

1. The poem written by Rick DellaRatta on 9/11 while witnessing those tragic events from a rooftop less than a quarter mile away from ground zero and which he has lived up to the words of for the past 25 years.
2. The unprecedented music of JAZZforPEACE which was launched with the very first concert less than a month later and continues to this day with the ability of Rick to take any song and turn it into an adventurous musical masterpiece of free improvisation that has been rated a 540 in human consciousness by a certified expert witnessing a live performance and is one of the closest human emotions to world peace which is listed at 600.
3. Rick DellaRatta's concert at the United Nations on September 25, 2002 uniting Israeli, Palestinian, and American jazz musicians is now considered by such luminaries as Barack Obama, Herbie Hancock and countless others <https://jazzforpeace.wordpress.com/about/> to be "The Most Significant Cultural Event of our Time!"
4. This historic event was then followed by an unprecedented benefit concert series that has helped over 850 of the world's most outstanding causes, and is the first of its kind and magnitude in the history of the arts and culture.
- 5.. The scale of events performed during this series under active terrorist warnings is considered one of the most courageous artistic statements of the 21st century.
6. The combined total of world leaders that have been united through this benefit concert series have now surpassed the combined total from the many other well known "one off" events including Woodstock, Live Aid, Farm Aid and more that inspired this series.

7. NEW!!! An amazing platform to take funding for World Peace from 0% to 1% by the end of our Year Long 25th Anniversary Celebration! Nearly 25 years and numerous unprecedented achievements ago, Rick DellaRatta rose from the ashes of 9/11 with nothing but a poem and founded what is now considered "The most significant cultural event of our time!", Jazz For Peace. Now, with a cadre of 25th Anniversary unprecedented achievements looming, he is now considered one of the world's most important musicians. Something he will prove with a unique 2-3 minute LIVE performance on your show!

Short Bio: Long known as one of the world's finest Jazz Pianists, Rick DellaRatta also began to receive major recognition as a composer when his symphonic piece "Permutata" was recorded by the London Symphony Orchestra at the Beatles famed Abbey Rd., Studios in 1999, and as a unique and important vocalist in 2004 when he was included in a definitive listing of the greatest jazz singers of all time in Scott Yanow's Book "Jazz Singers". Through his life long endeavor to help advance people to their highest potential through the understanding of Jazz as well as spreading peace worldwide through his "Jazz for Peace World Tour", Rick DellaRatta is considered to be an innovator and a visionary, a designation that became known by many when he was included by The Foundation Center in their list of the top musician philanthropists of our time along with Bono (U2), Elton John, Peter Gabriel and Sting.
