Dear Friend, family, supporter, or team member,
2018 marks the 16th anniversary of the Jazz for Peace Concert at the United Nations which is now a part of history. Since then Jazz for Peace has awarded over 850 Grants as detailed in this 3 and 1/2 minute video and additional information below, earning its place as "one of the most significant cultural events of our time". As part of this special Grant funding process all of your friends, family, colleagues and supporters will be awarded special VIP perks and amenities at our event in Beaverton by the Jazz for Peace Foundation to be held sometime in December, 2018 at a convenient & appropriate venue in our city as detailed in the "Jazz for Peace VIP Guest of Honor Fast Facts!" at this link:

In honor of this historic celebration we are applying for a Grant to take our project to the next level and would like you to take a quick minute to click on the VIP link above, check out the introductory video and VIP perks in store for you and your favored guests, and let us know your comments and feedback!

Here is my comment: "Voices Set Free is thrilled to join Jazz for Peace in helping children and adults who live or have lived in violent homes overcome the lifelong adversities they face to live life at their fullest potential." And for more clarification see actual comments from VIPS of previous Grants HERE.

Please review the VIP Link above and additional information below and let me know yours.

Sincerely,

Louise Bauschard, LCSW, Founder/Executive Director & Maeve Swakhammer, BSW, Childhood Domestic Violence Coordinator - Voices Set Free - 503-997-8041

Help us supersize this event by adding this cultural and world leader!

September 25, 2002

Rick DellaRatta and Jazz For Peace performed at the United Nations Headquarters in New York City. He led a band consisting of Middle Eastern, both Arab and Israeli, European, Asian, and American jazz musicians in concert for an international audience. Jazz for Peace continues to perform concerts to raise money for non-profit organizations. 2017 marks the 15th anniversary of this historic event!

“By bringing Israeli, Palestinian and American Jazz musicians together Rick DellaRatta and Jazz for Peace have used the transcendent quality of music to promote a message of peace and unity. Now, over 500 concerts later, Jazz for Peace continues its mission of challenging humanity to realize that the forces that unite us are far stronger than the forces that divide us.”

“I want to congratulate Rick and Jazz for Peace on everything they have accomplished to this point, and all the good they are sure to bring about as they continue this concert series....”

~ United States President Barack Obama

“International Jazz Day could not happen without partners like Jazz for Peace....using concerts, community outreach and education programs to raise support and awareness for local and international charities...to promote charitable and service-based activities that help make a positive difference in the world...to unify and empower the vulnerable in our society. We are indebted to you for your steadfast support, and look forward to working with you...” ~ Herbie Hancock
